NEW VISION SCHOOL • GRADE 4 • WEEK 9

Science in Action: Exploring Chemical Reactions!

Grade 4 students conducted a hands-on science experiment by mixing vinegar and baking soda to produce carbon dioxide gas. They observed bubbles forming and learned how a chemical reaction takes place when two substances are mixed. This engaging activity encouraged scientific curiosity and helped students understand gas formation through practical observation.

Hands-on experiment: mixing vinegar and baking soda

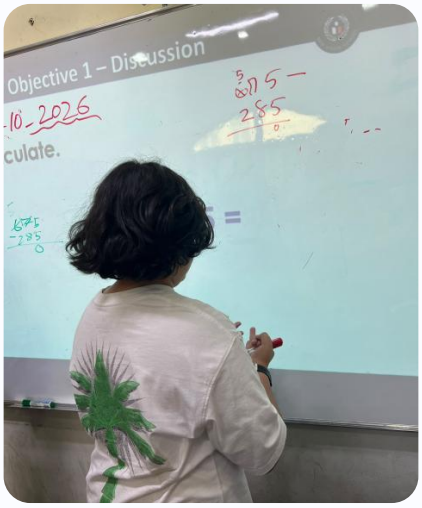

THE SCIENCE

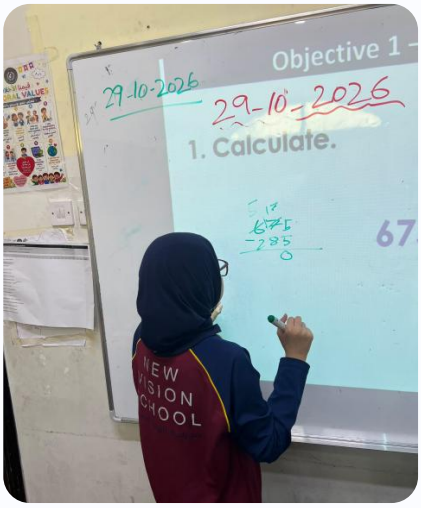

Vinegar + baking soda

→ carbon dioxide gas → bubbles!

MATHEMATICS

Maths in Action: Problem Solving!

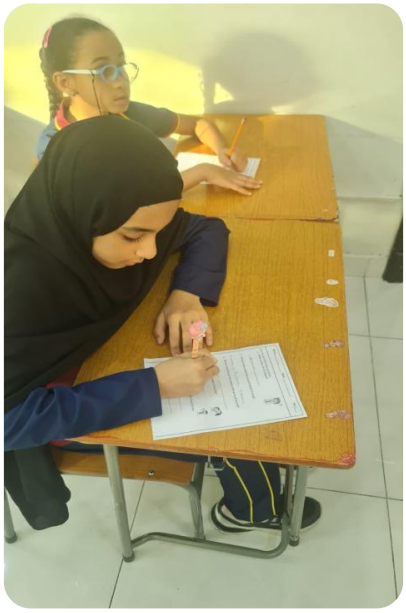

Students came up to the board to solve calculation problems in front of the class, showing their working step by step.

Practising multiplication, multiples and factors.

Remedial Class
