THIS WEEK
AT NVS

Grade 9 students focused on midterm revision and ongoing examinations this week, while also taking part in a peer-led English literature discussion and joining the New Vision School community in celebrating Teachers' Day.

LEARNING IN ACTION

ENGLISH - LITERATURE DISCUSSION
CHAIR

Grade 9C explored The Merchant of Venice through a peer-led discussion chaired by Hussain Ali. He asked thoughtful questions, encouraged students to share their interpretations, and facilitated constructive peer feedback.

MIDTERM FOCUS

Students revised key concepts across subjects and are currently completing their midterm examinations. They are encouraged to remain organized, review carefully, manage their time well, and approach each examination with confidence.

CURRENT WEEK HIGHLIGHTS

REVISION

Students reviewed class notes, completed tasks and important concepts in preparation for the midterm examinations.

EXAMINATION READINESS

Students practised time management, question interpretation and careful checking of responses.

STUDENT VOICE

The English discussion-chair activity gave students an opportunity to lead, question, respond and support one another.
